“[Herskowitz has] transformed the concept of ‘world’ music as I conceived of it half a century ago [and] carried it further than I could imagine.”
-Dave Brubeck

MADE IN AMERICA MATT HERSKOWITZ, PIANO

As part of the 100th birthday celebration of American composer, conductor, and educator Leonard Bernstein, Matt Herskowitz will perform a concert of music by famous American composers. Experience this dazzling and virtuosic pianist performing music of Bernstein as well as Broadway musical composer George Gershwin, ragtime pianist Scott Joplin, and jazz musician Dave Brubeck.

THE SAME STREAM JAMES JORDAN, CONDUCTOR

Born out of a closely knit family of singers, The Same Stream is a choir drawn from the Grammy® nominated Westminster Williamson Voices from the world-renowned Westminster Choir College. The choir comprises professional singers, teachers, composers, conductors and music practitioners who believe in the power of singing. The ensemble champions the music of new composers and also reaches out into choral literature covering a broad spectrum of musical styles and choral colors.

“The Same Stream Choir [is] one of the best there is! Under James Jordan’s expert direction they sing with passion, precision and control – every note and every word hits you right in the heart. Singing of such expert quality makes you feel the true warmth of the human soul.”

-Paul Mealor, composer

"A listener with closed eyes would have been hard pressed to distinguish the 26-year-old's shapely, expressive performance with that of another gifted artist two or three times his age."
-The Plain Dealer, Cleveland

THOMAS MESA, CUBAN-AMERICAN CELLIST

One of the most charismatic and versatile cellists of his generation, Thomas Mesa has toured with Itzhak Perlman and has performed solo and concerto engagements across the United States. Performing on a Richard Tobin cello from 1820, Mesa was one of the featured instrumentalists on the 2017 Grammy® nominated album "Bonhoeffer."

MAXWELL QUARTET

Widely regarded as one of Britain's finest string quartets, the Maxwell Quartet comprises four close friends who grew up playing folk and classical music together in orchestras and music schools across Scotland. The group maintains a strong connection to their folk music heritage and is committed to expanding the string quartet repertoire. This performance is the first concert on the group's first American tour.

“Watertown Musica Viva is exceptional. Their program [of folk songs] managed to both fill my heart with joy and bring me to tears. Each note was better than the previous one. I wanted to jump out of my seat throughout.”

-H. A. Burman

MADRIGALS, MOTETS & MERRIMENT

WATERTOWN MUSICA VIVA

Join Watertown Musica Viva for a performance of short secular and sacred vocal works each dealing with some aspect of love. From joy and passion to loss and despair, these short vignettes express earthly or divine love in typical Renaissance style. Many favorites will be included in this program of compositions by William Byrd, Thomas Morley, Orlando Gibbons, Thomas Weelkes and several others.

YI-YANG CHEN,
PIANO

Assistant Professor of Piano & Music Theory at East Tennessee State University, Yi-Yang Chen is the winner of more than ten international competitions including the 2012 Thousand Islands International Piano Competition in Cape Vincent, NY. Having performed in concert and recital halls throughout the United States, he gave his Carnegie Hall solo recital debut in 2017.

“Technical wizardry and artistic intuition throughout.”
-Herald Times

“Levin...drew nuanced timbres and textures while making the mechanics of her instrument disappear.”
-Philadelphia Inquirer

EMILY LEVIN,
HARP

The youngest principal harpist of a major American orchestra (Dallas Symphony), Emily Levin has performed solo concerts throughout the United States and Europe. Emily is passionate about sharing music in schools and is known for bringing the harp to the forefront of a diverse musical spectrum by using her instrument to connect with all audiences.

SACKETS HARBOR VOCAL ARTS ENSEMBLE & ORCHESTRA

KYLE RAMEY, CONDUCTOR

Founded in 2006, the Sackets Harbor Vocal Arts Ensemble has performed on the Trinity Concert Series for the past twelve seasons. Comprised of singers from all walks of life, the ensemble has performed more than a dozen major choral works since its founding. This season, the ensemble will be joined by four soloists and chamber orchestra for a performance of Franz Joseph Haydn's 'Missa in Angustiis' (Mass for Troubled Times) and René Clausen's 'A New Creation.' Composed in 1798, Haydn's Mass (nicknamed 'Lord Nelson Mass') was written during a time of great turmoil and violence in Austria. From this turmoil and unrest, the program will move to joy and peace in 'A New Creation.' Completed in 1989, the work characterizes various aspects of the human/God, God/human relationship.

TAKE 3 & LAUREN JELENOVICH, VOCALIST

With a flair for the wild and unexpected, the genre-bending trio, Take 3, brings the refinement of a rigorous classical background and mixes it with rockstar charisma. Whether performing their take on pop, jazz, or classical tunes, they bring enthusiasm to their interpretations and impart their love of music to audiences of all musical preferences. The trio will be joined by vocalist Lauren Jelencovich for a concert of movie scores as well as other classical and pop music. Jelencovich as well as violinist Lindsay Deutsch both tour with Yanni as featured soloists.
