PROJECT Trio

$18-$26

SUNDAY
09/18
3 PM

Combining the virtuosity of world-class artists with the high energy of rock stars, PROJECT Trio is acclaimed by the press as being "packed with musicianship, joy and surprise." They are "an ensemble willing and able to touch on the gamut of musical bases ranging from Baroque to nu-Metal and taking in pretty much every stylism in between."

Daniel Kurganov, violin Constantine Finehouse, piano

$18-$26

SUNDAY
11/13
3 PM

Kurganov and Finehouse are known for using the full possibilities of their respective instruments to present concerts displaying their fine musicianship throughout. Of their recent recordings, ClassicsToday says that "they play with extraordinary fervor, commitment, and technical prowess, and it would be hard to beat these exceptionally well-engineered world-premiere recordings."

TAKE3 for the Holidays

$22-$30

FRIDAY
12/09
7 PM

With a flair for the wild and unexpected, the genre-defying trio TAKE3 brings the refinement of a rigorous classical music background and infuses it with rock-star charisma. Trained at the world's top conservatories, the trio performs repertoire from Bach and Beethoven to The Beach Boys. TAKE3 will leave its indelible mark on all who hear them.

Hark, Glad Tidings! Watertown Musica Viva

$15-$23

SATURDAY
12/17
3 PM

Watertown Musica Viva, which has captivated audiences for the last 12 years with a wide-ranging repertoire spanning all musical periods, will perform a concert of a cappella sacred and secular Christmas music sure to get you in the holiday spirit. This independent chamber choir formed in 2010 comprises professional-level singers from many different walks of life.

Oswego Jazz Project

$18-$26

SUNDAY
01/22
3 PM

SUNY Oswego's faculty jazz group, the Oswego Jazz Project, will take the stage to present a concert of original compositions and jazz standards. Comprising piano, saxophone, string bass and drums, the award-winning members of this quartet are recording artists and university professors known for their innovative improvisation.

Dublin Guitar Quartet

$22-$30

SATURDAY
02/04
7 PM

Described as artists with "commanding technique" who have an "intricate detail and a near-orchestral palette of sound backed by hall-filling power," this Irish quartet has performed in many of the leading venues around the world. They have dedicated their career to contemporary music, an aspect that makes the ensemble unique in its genre. With the help of eight- and eleven-string guitars, they have created an original catalog of arrangements by leading composers.

Dash Duo with Organ

$18-$26

SUNDAY
05/07
3 PM

Husband-and-wife trumpeters David Dash and Mary Bowden are Yamaha Artists who perform virtuoso concerts around the world as the Dash Duo. Champions of new music, they have commissioned pieces for two trumpets and orchestra and two trumpets and organ. They will join TCS Artistic Director Kyle Ramey to perform a varied program for trumpets and organ.

PIANO SERIES

Konrad Paszkudzki

Described as a having “a pearly touch, a sense of history, a sense of drama, a love of the blues, and an elegance which is born of high-minded dedication,” jazz pianist Konrad Paszkudzki, who performed on the series last season with his jazz trio, will present a solo concert of great tunes that showcase his exceptional musicianship and technique.

$15-$23

SUNDAY
10/23
3 PM

Brian Woods

Celebrated for his stunning musicianship and dazzling stage presence, pianist Brian Woods has emerged as a rising star of international acclaim. Audiences have remarked that his playing is “so thoughtful and expressive, like hearing the music anew with a clearer picture of the composer’s intentions.” His solo concert is sure to showcase his formidable technique and inspiring interpretations.

$15-$23

SUNDAY
01/15
3 PM

Young-Ah Tak

Praised for her “thrilling blend of fury and finesse” and her “winning combination of passion, imagination, and integrity,” pianist Young-Ah Tak currently serves as an associate professor of piano and head of the piano area at the Crane School of Music in Potsdam. Ms. Tak enjoys a remarkable career that has taken her throughout the world presenting solo concerts as well as numerous concerts with orchestra.

SUNDAY
03/26
3 PM

$15-$23

Hyde-Hall & Ramey Duo

Following a successful concert last season of Christmas music for piano duo, prominent local pianist Chris Hyde-Hall joins TCS’ Artistic Director Kyle Ramey for another piano duo concert of music from Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart to Scott Joplin as well as popular tunes and film scores. This performance will have something for everyone and will showcase some of the best arrangements for four-hand piano.
